

Criminal Law

Content

We have professional experience in advising natural and legal persons, related to the theory of the case and the development of the corresponding hearings in criminal matters, in the protection and structuring of business, minimizing the risks and consequences for crime victims.

We seek to advise our clients in the following:

-  Analysis and planning of strategies to minimize the consequences of crimes that our clients have been victims of.
-  Analysis and planning of strategies to seek effective measures to protect property and personal integrity for third party crimes.
-  If required, analysis and planning of defense and repair strategies.

Questions

-  Situations that you would have to face if you have been the victim of a crime.
-  How to identify and prevent illegal third-party actions.