

Litigation, Arbitration and Mediation

Content

We have extensive experience working hand in hand with clients to design strategies that best suit their business, to face any risks and conflicts that may arise, in order to protect their financial and reputational interests, whether in the field of litigation or the resolution of conflicts through alternative means of resolution, such as conciliation, arbitration, mediation and amiable composition.

We seek to support our clients in the following:

-  Counseling and representation in national litigation and conciliation in civil, family, administrative and commercial law.
-  Support and representation of our clients in national arbitration and amiable compositions -dispute boards-.
-  Be part of arbitration courts and amiable settler panels.
-  Structuring and analysis of legal strategies for judicial processes, in search of the best result for our clients.
-  Counseling in the structuring of arbitration or amiable composition clauses, according to client needs and the contractual and business reality.

Questions

How to structure a lawsuit, a reply and counterclaim.

How to effectively negotiate an alternative method of conflict resolution.

Management of the pre arbitration stage, prior to installing the arbitration or the amiable composition.