

Pro-bono

Content

Within the responsible exercise of the profession, we aim to provide legal advice and support in all areas of law, to individuals who are not in economic capacity to hire high quality professional advice. We seek to contribute to the social welfare of the community and balance the burdens within an economic structure like that of our country.

Questions

How to obtain legal advice, without having the financial resources to access it.